LITTLE HELPS

My Dear Children—Some days after the man has baked and baked the earth a storm comes and the gentle rain drops HELP.

Sometimes we find little poems which we cut out and save. Have you one to send me? I do not know who wrote this little poem or what it is called, but here it is:

A little bit of patience often Makes the sunshine come;
A little bit of pote makes a Very bappy home;
A little bit of hope makes a Rainy day look gay,
And a little bit of charity
Makes glad a weary day.

De you like it?

By Farmer Smith

"It seems good to be home again," said Billy Bumpus to his good wife as he seated himself in his morts chair and took up the Goatvine News.

Carvine News.

Greatly my Gear, not to go to sleep; some of our neighbors might come in to welcome you home, and it wouldn't do for them to find you asleep. You are a hero, now, my hushand; a head it wouldn't do for them to find you asleep. To use a hero, now, my hushand; a head it wouldn't do for them to find you asleep. To use a hero, now, my hushand; a hero. The man hero—our hero—began to snore. It seemed to Mrs. Bumpus that the rafters bead—droped.

Billy was asleep.

Then the hero—our hero—began to snore. It seemed to Mrs. Bumpus that the rafters bead dropped.
